

I support the intent of this proposal, which is not to change the MorseCode requirements further.